

It is very important to maintain the first amendment alive, and this include stop the largest radio and television owners to decide what we want to see or listen.

Satellite radio is a paid service under category as Directv, Voom or any other Cable, satellite or private service. Satellite radio is an alternative to the junk that largest national broadcasters want to impose to the American public.

Pleade do not let the monopolies take control of our lives.

Regards,

Otto De La Torre